

SERMONS IN A SENTENCE

This booklet commemorates the 15th year of Tabernacle Tidings broadcast over CHAB, Moose Jaw, Sask.

To the many friends of Tabernacle Tidings who have daily prayed for this program as it has, for many years, gone over the air
every day of the week, except Saturdays;
to those who have so faithfully stood by us with their tithes and offerings making it possible to remain on this daily schedule;
to all of the faithful co-workers who are "keeping the Gospel of Jesus Christ on the Air until He comes in the Air"—
... we gratefully and thankfully dedicate this 1935 Souvenir Book.

Sermons-in-a-Sentence

Because of the many testimonies received in the mail telling of the blessing that the "Sermons-in-a-sentence" have been, we have compiled this book for 1955 Letter Month. To you who have written this month, we have sent this book with a prayer that the "Sermons-in-a-sentence" will be a help to you and that many moments of blessings will come your way as you read it.

BIBLE

The Bible does not need to be re-written, but re-read.

Show the Bible in the world and show the Bible in your life.—(T. Baud.)

The Bible is like a mirror . . . it makes a man face himself.

We may tremble on the Rock of Ages, but the Rock will never tremble under us.—(John MacNeill)

Man could not have written the Bible if he would, and would not if he could.—(John Wesley)

Bible verses will save you from spiritual reverses.

The Bible was not written so much to tell how the heavens go, as to tell how to go to heaven.

A Bible stored in the mind is worth a dozen stored in the bottom of one's trunk.

Every fact of the Bible is meant to be a factor in the life.

When wealth is lost, nothing is lost; when health is lost, something is lost; when character is lost, all is lost.

If men speak ill of you, live so nobody'll believe them.

There may be a wrong way to do right, but there's no right way to do wrong.

We are not what we think we are, but what we think, we are.

Be an "A-men" Christian, but don't shout it louder than you live it.

Anything is wrong that is almost right.

Live the life if you are going to talk the talk.

Character is what a man is while he is on his vacation.

The man who cannot live Christ in his home has no business preaching Christ abroad.

You are the very best Christian somebody knows.

The holler-than-thou attitude may be due to virtue, but it is usually caused by a poor memory.

The straight and narrow road is the only path that has no traffic problem.

Building boys is better than mending men.

(Charles H. Spurgeon)

Bad habits are like a comfortable bed, easy to get into but hard to get out of.

One way to break a bad habit is to drop it.

CHURCH

The Church militant is irresistible.

The Church has been "called out," "sent forth," and will one day be "caught up."

Any Church whose business is not God's business will soon be out of business.

People outside the Church are indifferent because the people inside the Church are not different.

The devil has little to fear from the spiritual activities generated in a poorly ventilated Church.

A man who detests the Church ought to go to Church at least once a year to make sure that the Church has not mended the faults of which he complains.

Your own Church steeple is not the only one that points to heaven.

The less real religion a Church has, the more bazaars and entertainments it takes to keep it running.

The business of the Church is not to furnish bannocks for the lazy, but poles for the drawing of loads.

The world will never be saved by the pink leas of the Churches.

Satan has reserved a seat in many a sanctuary.

Judging from Church attendance, Heaven won't be packed with men.

The Church had never such influence over the world as in those days when she had nothing to do with the world.

The way to preserve the peace of the Church is to preserve the purity of it.

It's the early bird who gets the back seat.

Pray daily for "Tibernacle Tidings!"

CONSCIENCE

Conscience is a still, small voice and half the time, when it tries to speak up, it finds that the time is busy.

An inner voice that warns us some one is looking.
(Mencken)

Trust that man is nothing who has not conscience in everything.

CONSECRATION

When God bolts the door, don't try to get in through a window.

We often go wrong by debating with God instead of waiting on God.

The secret of an unsatisfied life lies in an unsurrendered will.

If Christ is not Lord of all, He isn't Lord at all.

People sometimes think they have a strong will, when it's a strong "won't."

We must lay self aside or God will lay us aside.

God will accept a broken heart, but He must have all the pieces.

CHRISTIAN

A Christian is like a good watch—open faced, bony hands, well regulated, and full of good works.—(Amen.)

Don't just realize Christ has walked this way before, but that He walks it over again with you.—(Bostrom)

A good Christian is like six o'clock, straight up and down.

Life with Christ is an endless hope; without Him, it is a hopeless end.

Pray daily for "Tabernacle Tidings"

DOUBT

Doubt digs the grave of faith.

An atheist has a reason, but no hope for his reason.
A hypocrite has a hope but no reason for his hope.
A Christian has a reason for his hope and a hope for his reason.

Free-thinkers are generally those who have done little thinking at all.

Where was there ever a mother who taught her child to be an infidel?

When men are brought to believe that they die like beasts, they are soon brought to live like beasts.

The theories that make the most noise are the exploded ones.

Faith sees the invisible, believes the incredible, and receives the impossible.

"We are too busy defending the faith when we should be demonstrating the faith through love of Him."

If your faith is full, then you will be faithful.

Those who see God's hand in everything can best leave everything in God's hands.

If God asks you to do something and you haven't the faith, do what you would do if you had the faith.

Real faith never goes home with an empty basket.

Faith expects from God what is beyond all expectation.

Do not be discouraged, it may be the last key on the ring that opens the door.

FRIEND

It has been well said, "A true friend is one who knows all about us, but loves us just the same."

The time to make friends is before you need them.
(Amen.)

A friend is a person who knows before he enters, not after he leaves.

FORGIVE

He who cannot forgive, breaks the bridge over which he himself must pass.—(Geo. Herbert)

The poorest way to get even with anyone is to sink to his level.

The mole in your brother's eye may be the shadow of the beam in your own eye.

It's a lot better to pardon too much than to condemn too much.

GIVING

Giving is not just a way of raising money. It's God's way of raising men.—(Amen.)

You may give without loving, but you cannot love without giving.

He who keeps close to God will not be close with God.

A man does not own his wealth, he owes it.

Some people give according to their means; and others according to their meanness.

Some people do not even give attention when they go to Church.

When you rob God, you cheat yourself.

Money never made a fool of anyone. It only shows them up.

Pray daily for "Tabernacle Tidings"

HAPPINESS

Success is getting what you want, happiness is wanting what you get.

The only way on earth to multiply happiness is to divide it.

The only way to keep happiness is to give it to someone else.

Eloquence does not improve prayer.

If you would be miserable, look to self. If you would be perplexed, look to others. If you would be happy, look to Jesus.

Keep your happiness in circulation.

While seeking happiness for others, we unconsciously find it for ourselves.

Better associate with a cheerful idiot than a sour-pickle sage.

Remember, you are not only the salt of the earth but the sugar.

If you can't see the bright side of a thing, then polish the dull side.

HEAVEN

He who seldom thinks of Heaven is not likely to get there.

Heaven would be Hell to an irreligious man. One who cannot stand a prayer meeting here, would find no satisfaction there.

HOME

Many modern homes are merely filling stations.

Many a man who is a big bug at the office is just an insect at home.

Pray daily for "Tehomsky Tidings"

HUMILITY

The man who bows the lowest in the presence of God stands the straightest in the presence of sin.

Only when the heart is a broken vessel can it carry the water of life.

Those who would build high must remain low.

The branches that bear the most fruit hang the lowest.
The only way up is down.

God has two thrones one in the highest heaven and the other in the lowliest heart.

Great men are the ones unconscious of greatness.
Only little men must increase their size by inflation.

Mackness is not weakness but strength harvested for service.

He who sits nearest the dust sits nearest Heaven.

Humility is a virtue all preach, some practice, and everybody is content to hear praised.

The higher a man is in grace the lower he will be in his own esteem.—(Spurgeon)

HYPOCRISY

Some people have too much religion to be happy at a dance, but too little to be happy at a prayer meeting.

A man's character is like a fence all the whitewash in the world won't strengthen it.

Many call the Church their mother whom God will not own as His children.

Some talk Christianity by the yard but they cannot live it by the inch.

Knock down a hypocrite in the Church and you'll upset a dozen outsiders who are leaning up against him.

Periodical godliness is perpetual hypocrisy.

Better be one-sided than two-faced.

It is dying Christianity that fails to present the living Christ.

GIVE ATTENDANCE TO MEETINGS
(1 Tim. 4:13)

From the preceding it will be seen that the most important modification has been introduced in the lighter form. It consists in the removal of the top of the cap, so that the upper part of the glass may be easily removed. The advantage of this is that it makes the removal of the smaller fragments easier. This change of course gives the glass a more uniform appearance. The bottom of the glass is also made flatter. It is also found that this removal is much facilitated.

Final Conference of the IFCI members at the beginning of the year 1950 in the Swiss Hotel and Hotel of the University of Zurich gave a general program for developing international cooperation among the European states. This program was to be carried out by creating a regional of Geneva between May 1950 and July 1950.

This meeting organized under the IFCI plan. This is considered the most progressive organization members of

A pint of example is worth a gallon of advice.

We are less convinced by what we hear than by what we see.

KNOWLEDGE

Some read just enough to keep themselves misinformed.

No sense is so uncommon as common sense.

A white lie soon gets tanned from exposure.

Trying to undo a false story after it has started is like trying to gather up a basket of feathers after they are scattered.

It is easy to tell one lie, but hard to tell just one.

MISSIONS

If there were more abiding in Christ, there would be fewer Christians abiding in America. (Selected)

The Church that is not a missionary Church will soon be a missing Church.

The best remedy for a sick Church is to put it on a missionary diet.

The closer you come to God's altar the more likely you are to be a missionary.

The Church that persists in shirking the missionary question is pronouncing its own doom.

Charity begins at home but the hand we read about in the Bible is never confined there.

If I refuse to give anything to missions, I cast my ballot in favor of the recall of every missionary.

It is very easy to be religious, but it is a different matter to be godly.

God never comforts us to make us comfortable, but to make us comforters.

"No man," said Flavel, "hath a velvet cross."

God sometimes puts us in the dark to prove to us that He is light.

Obstacles are those frightful things you see when you take your eyes off the goal.

When the outlook is bad, try the uplook.

If you can't be trusted you can't be used.

TONQUE

A fool's tongue is always long enough to cut his throat.

Nothing is easier than fault-finding; no talent, no self-denial, no brains, no character are required to set up in the grumbling business.

To go gunning for trouble, just start shooting off your mouth.

The world abounds in critics—of other people's work.

Time spent in looking for faults in others could best be used in correcting our own.

WITNESSING

Each of us carries a key that unlocks the door of salvation for others.

Our hiding place must be our abiding place.

It is good to be saved and know it, it is better to be saved and show it.

You can do more than profess after you have confessed, but you cannot do more than profess until you have confessed.

Wake up, sing up, preach up, pray up, pay up, stay up, and never give up, let up, back up, or shut up until the cause of Christ in the Church and the world is won up.

We are told to tell we are found to find, we are saved to reach others.

The light that shines farthest shines brightest at home.

Seal without knowledge is like haste to a man walking in the dark.

Many Christians are like the stream that dries up in summer and freezes up in winter.

Our Lord did not call disciples to cultivate fish, but to catch them.

Reaching one person at a time is the best way of reaching all the world in time.

He will never talk with real success to men for God who has not learned well how to talk to God for men.

God didn't call us all to be judges or lawyers, just witnesses.

WORLDLINESS

Lie down with dogs and you'll get up with bane.

The path of the world seems pleasant enough if you don't stop to think where you're going.

Let us fear the patronage of the world more than its persecution.

WORK

To each is given a bag of tools, a shapeless mass, and a book of rules.

And each must make ere life is done a stumbling block or stepping stone.

On slate of filing station Between life's birthstone and the tombstone is the grindstone.

The man who wakes up and finds himself famous hasn't been asleep.

Killing time is not murder but suicide.

There are no elevators in the house of success. You must go up one step at a time.

Even if you are on the right track you will be run over if you sit there. (Reader's Christian Digest.)

I have never heard anything about the resolutions of the Apostles but I have read a good deal about the Acts of the Apostles. (Horace Mann)

God's reward for work well done is more work to do.
If you have to kill time, try working it to death.

If you've lost the key to success, look for it in your working clothes.

Service is love in working clothes.

Some think they are truly busy when they are only restless.

Motion is just exactly two-thirds of promotion.

Luck is what happens when preparation meets opportunity.

There's always plenty of parking space on Easy street.

Don't go through life's revolving door on someone else's push.

WORK—CONTINUED

Looking longingly at the top of the ladder will avail nothing. It's the climb that counts.—(Straight)

When we get the chance to do big things, it is usually because we have done little things well.

God's work done in God's way will always have God's blessing.

Too many people itch for what they want but won't scratch for it. He is idle who might be better employed.

When duty calls, some people are never at home.

The man who says, "It can't be done," is liable to be interrupted by somebody doing it.

We are not saved because we work, we work because we are saved.

Responsibility is our response to God's ability.

God's house is a bane for workers, not a nest for drones.

The devil is never too busy to rock the cradle of a sleeping saint.

WORRY

You cannot change the past, but you can ruin a perfectly good present by worrying about the future.

Yesterday and tomorrow are both out of your reach, make the most of today.

Of all the troubles great or small, the greatest are those that don't happen at all.

Worry Interest we pay on trouble before it is due.

Fear of failure is the father of failure.

We surely want to say we enjoy the blessings of your program every day. The songs are always such a lift to me and my invalid daughter as our Daddy's work takes him away from home each day. We are 15 miles from Church, so only get there on Sundays, and we do need spiritual food each day.

Anable, Sask.

I am a high school student and don't get the chance to listen to your broadcast very often, but when I do, it gives me strength to keep my stand for Christ.

* * *

Cameron, Sask.

I am a mother and busy but will take time to write. Sometimes when my heart becomes heavy and I tune in to your program, you have the very message from His word that I needed to strengthen and encourage my heart.

* * *

Captain, Sask.

We would like you to know we appreciate your program more than we can tell and if we do miss it some morning the day does not seem complete somehow.

* * *

Carlyle, Sask.

I for one would not rest if that program were taken off the air. You are doing the most worthwhile work in the whole world.

* * *

Duck Lake, Sask.

Many times when I have felt weak in my Christian life, I have been strengthened by your messages.

* * *

Resource, Sask.

I am much in favour of your program. It was through radio that I saw the light of Jesus as my Saviour and am ever praising Him for it.

Baskettoon, Sask.

Your message each morning is a blessing and was a great comfort while I was in the hospital this summer

* * *

Kendal, Sask.

Your program is of such help, as there is no Church in our district.

* * *

Viking, Alta.

A friend of mine told me the other day about your program. I have listened only for a little while and it is another added 15 minutes of happiness in my life each day. Oh, that more and more such programs might come over the radio.

* * *

Melvern, Sask.

At last I am getting at writing to you. Have thought of doing it hundreds of times, but have been too busy. I enjoy your program so much. I guess there are hundreds like me who listen in, but never write.

(P.S. This ady is so right. Why not take a few minutes right now and get that letter in to Box 353, Moose Jaw, today? Thanks!)

* * *

Waldheim, Sask.

I certainly do appreciate these 15 minutes of Gospel in song and sermon each day. I never miss it if I can help it. It helps one so much especially when one has lost loved ones so recently as I have.

* * *

Woolchester Alta.

We still listen to your program and may God keep back on the ear as it feeds our souls daily.

* * *

Congress, Sask.

Your program is such a source of inspiration and blessing. I am thankful God has opened the way for these broadcasts to stay on the air.

* * *

Baskettoon, Sask.

Your messages and songs have been such a special blessing and comfort to me this summer when both my mother and brother were taken home to Glory within three weeks of each other.

Penzance, Sask.

The messages in word and song over "Tabernacle Tidings" often thrill my soul and it would just be a terrible loss to us, if we were deprived of hearing the precious message and hymns every day.

Tayler, Sask.

"Tabernacle Tidings" is certainly a "good reason to listen to C.H.A.R." We do thank you and praise the Lord for the broadcast every day. It really is a spiritual uplift each morning.

Moosomin, Sask.

Your program is a little sunbeam in the morning when I am busy tidying the house.

Wishart, Sask.

I am enclosing $— this month, for a radio service such as yours means a lot to folks like me, who is not able to get to a service often

* * *

McCord, Sask.

We are steady listeners. I am not able to get to Church.
My eyesight is so poor I can not read, but I love the Lord and do listen to your radio program over the air. It helps a lot in our spiritual life.

* * *

Weyburn, Sask.

Your program gives us a great lift for the day

* * *

Clarkboro, Sask.

Your program has so many interesting things packed into 16 minutes and I do praise God for it.

* * *

Captain Sask

Your program is a great help to me to help cope with the problems and daily trials.

* * *

We look forward to your broadcast each day. It is a real blessing to us and something to meditate on all during the day.

* * *

I enjoy your program so much because I am away from Christian fellowship and any kind of Gospel service.
It has been as a spring in the desert for our family

* * *

In so many business places we hear the program.
It might just be that someone will hear the Gospel and turn to the Lord Jesus Christ.

* * *

We listen to your program all the time. We are shut-ins. I am 83 and my husband is 89. He is in a wheel chair and can't get out at all. We get great blessings from Tabernacle Tidings.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Tabernacle Tidings is supported solely by the gifts of our listeners. It is as you stand with us by sending your offerings that we are able to carry on this ministry. The mail has dropped to one-half the letters we received last year. I'm sure you can readily see that if this trend continues, we will not be able to carry on with our present daily schedule. One or more morning broadcast will have to be discontinued. We do not like to beg or say too much about finances, but the situation is really serious. We do not want to ask for gifts over the air because we do not want to create the impression to our listeners that the Gospel is for sale. But we must pay for our radio time by the tenth of each month. Your response will determine whether or not we can continue with the present daily schedule. If every one of you, who receives blessing and help from Tabernacle Tidings, will send a small donation regularly, we would find no problem to remain on the air on this daily schedule.

WE NEED YOUR HELP. Only you can make it possible to "keep the Gospel of Jesus Christ on the Air until He comes in the Air." The situation is serious. Please pray about it and "Whatsoever He saith unto you do it."

Very sincerely,

Rev. A. H. Orthner, Director.
